

Cumulative methylarginine density from nearest structured-domain edge

Site-weighted length null uses arginines from the same outside-domain IDR segment and same N/C side as each observed methyl-site.